

Your Role at CSB

As a member of the teaching faculty, you'll teach one or more weekly classes during the school year. Teaching faculty assigned to a school showcase and/or community engagement will also create and teach choreography and be available for rehearsals, performances, and events. Our dance teachers are responsible for instructing, explaining, and demonstrating techniques and methods of dance with musical or rhythmic accompaniment to students of all ages and varying levels. There are also separate opportunities to work in the performance side of the company that presents four ballets annually.

If you are passionate about teaching, have a strong background in any of our offered disciplines, and share our commitment to performing arts and education, we encourage you to consider joining the CSB family.

At CSB, we are dedicated to creating an inclusive, diverse, and equitable workplace. We celebrate individuality, and we welcome candidates from all backgrounds and experiences to apply.

In conclusion, CSB is not just a school; it's a home for creativity, a haven for dancers and artists, and an environment where your expertise will be cherished and rewarded.
